Table of contents

Acknowledgments  3
List of illustrations 4
Foreword 10
  Westerlo and a culture of change in New York State
  as a research topic 10
  The function of the appendices 11
  The methods used 11

Chapter 1. Introduction 13
  The situation in the colony and state of New York
  in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries 13
  The arrival of Westerlo in North America 16

Chapter 2. Living a religious life in the eighteenth century 21
  Introduction 21
  The formative years: October 1738 – September 1760 22
  The Coetus-Conferentie controversy 31
  Finding his place in the New World:
  September 1760 – July 1775 37
  The War years, 1775-1783 49
  The final years: rebuilding the Church, 1783-1790 52
  What became of the name Westerlo in America? 55
  Conclusion 57

Chapter 3. April 20, 1768: rebirth 59
  Introduction 59
  Pietism and regeneration in the eighteenth century 60
  Regeneration 60
  Converting people to Christianity 62
  Other regeneration conversions 62
  Theodorus Jacobus Frelinghuysen 67
  George Whitefield 70
  John Henry Livingston 73
  Eilardus Westerlo’s conversion experience 76
  Thomas Boston and his Human Nature 84
  Human Nature in Its Fourfold State 85
  Conclusion 87
Chapter 4. A Pietist with Dutch and German intellectual origins

Introduction 88
Pietism in Eighteenth-Century Europe 90
The Pietist Westerlo 92
Experiential 92
Perfectionistic 93
Biblical 98
Oppositive 98
Westerlo and his Memoirs 99
The difficulties of identifying Pietists 100
Verschuir and Westerlo’s Pietism 101
Van Lodenstein 101
Doubts about eighteenth-century Pietists 101
Westerlo on the piety of Gerdes and Bertling 102
Westerlo’s Pietistic upbringing 103
Cocceian-Voetian controversy 104
Daniel Gerdes as Westerlo’s mentor 107
Did Westerlo manifest himself as a Cocceian or a Voetian? 112
Conclusion 115

Chapter 5. Westerlo’s role in the adaptation of the Church Order of Dort to the circumstances in North America

Introduction 116
The issues decided in Dordrecht in 1618/1619 116
The theological issue 116
The political issue 117
The Church Order established in Dordrecht in 1619 119
Westerlo’s learning about the Synod of Dort 120
1. Assisting Hermanus Meijer in his conflict with his consistory in Kingston 120
2. Joining the Union of the Churches in New York and New Jersey 121
Correspondence 123
Westerlo’s January 5, 1774 letter to his congregation 124
Memoirs 126
3. Settling an argument in The Boght 127
4. Approval for the translation of one of his great-uncle’s books 128
The Church Order of Dort as basis for the North American Reformed Church 128
“All are one in Christ” 135
Westerlo’s attitude towards slavery 138
Conclusion 140
Chapter 6. Evidences of Westerlo’s religious creed

Introduction
Alberthoma’s Uittreksel van de Leere der Waarheid
The Memoirs
Correspondence
The Church Records of the Albany consistory
A Frelinghuysen connection
  Westerlo and the Frelinghuysens
  A possible explanation
  Common ground between Frelinghuysen and Westerlo
  Collaboration with the Presbyterians
  Converting others
  Psalm 25
  Family connections
Conclusion

Chapter 7. John Henry Livingston: father of the Reformed Church in America?

Introduction
The situation of the Dutch Reformed Church in America in the 1760s
John Henry’s path to the ministry
Eilardus and John Henry
John Henry Livingston and the Plan of Union
Why did Livingston bring the Plan of Union to America?
The Plan of 1768
Justification for naming Livingston “father of the Reformed Church in America”
Nineteenth-century view of the struggles of the Dutch Reformed Church
Conclusion

Chapter 8. Westerlo’s sermon of June 27, 1782

Introduction
The political context
Westerlo’s inspiration
The importance of the sermon
Westerlo’s sermon compared with sermons by Lampe and Gerdes
The structure of the June 27, 1782 sermon
Washington’s Circular Letter of June 1783
Westerlo and Washington
Romans 13:1
Conclusion
Chapter 9. Conclusion
- Westerlo in fiction 222
- Westerlo’s tenure in Albany 226
- Westerlo in a changing world 229

Bibliography 231

Samenvatting 274

Index of Names 280

***

Appendices

| Introduction | 2 |
| Appendix 1: Memoirs of Eilardus Westerlo | 5 |
| Appendix 2: Books in Westerlo’s collection | 239 |
| Appendix 3: Manuscript sources | 287 |
| Appendix 4: Eilardus Westerlo’s will of September 1, 1775; genealogy drawn up before May 6, 1776 | 293 |
| Appendix 5: The Remonstrance of September 17, 1773, and Westerlo’s Preface and Addendum to it | 298 |
| Appendix 6: Letter by Eilardus Westerlo to his Congregation, January 5, 1774 | 315 |
| Appendix 8: Partial Livingston family tree | 340 |
| Appendix 9: Index of Scripture mentioned in Westerlo’s Memoirs | 344 |
| Appendix 10: Eilardus Westerlo’s June 27, 1782 Sermon, with General George Washington in attendance, in Albany, NY | 353 |