Table of Contents

Map

Introduction     8
Wayang discourses 15
The wayang arena  23
Methodology       28
Fieldwork         31
Outline           35

Chapter 1 In search of wayang (ca. 1800-1945) 39
A Dutch context for wayang 41
Wayang unlocked (ca. 1800-1900) 43
The revaluation of a tradition (ca. 1900 - ca. 1920) 50
Preservation and codification (ca. 1920 - 1945) 56
Wayang on display 63
Conclusion        73

Chapter 2 Framing a national tradition (1945-1998) 75
A national context for wayang 77
Colonial paradigms reproduced 78
Wayang for the nation (1945-1967) 85
Centralization and education (1967-1998) 92
Conclusion        103

Chapter 3 Wayang as world heritage (1998 – the present) 107
An international context for wayang 109
Wayang post-1998 111
The Wayang Museum 113
The paradox of UNESCO heritage 121
Conclusion        132

Chapter 4 Purbo Asmoro: the performance of academic standards 135
Purbo Asmoro – Dalang Priyai 138
Wayang at ISI Surakarta 143
Framed in tradition 150
Audience appreciation 157
Conclusion 160

Chapter 5 Manteb Soedharsono: how invention becomes convention 163
Manteb Soedharsono – Dalang Setan 166
Bigger wayang stars, smaller universe 171
Wayang innovations 175
The international face of wayang 179
Conclusion 187

Chapter 6 Enthus Susmono: in search of new audiences 191
Enthus Susmono – Dalang Edan 194
Marketing wayang 198
The performance of politics 204
Wayang Superstar 210
Conclusion 216

Conclusion 219
Bibliography 231
Samenvatting 243
Summary 252
Acknowledgements 260