

Table of Contents

Chapter 1: Introduction .....	7
Lam Chi-fung: Preliminary Remarks .....	8
Research Question and Motivation.....	10
Relevance .....	12
Research Review: Lam Chi-fung.....	15
Research Review: History of Hong Kong Baptists .....	18
Sources .....	19
Definition of Terms and Chinese Transliterations .....	21
Hong Kong.....	21
Macau.....	21
Hong Kong Baptists.....	21
Hong Kong Baptist Church .....	22
Hong Kong Baptist Association .....	22
Southern Baptist Convention and American Baptist Convention.....	22
Church, Chapel, and Outstation.....	23
Names in Chinese and Transliteration.....	23
Hong Kong Baptist Monthly .....	23
Limitations .....	24
Structure .....	26
Chapter 2: Hong Kong Baptist Story (1842-1900): From Missionaries Acting Alone to Chinese Taking Part.....	28
Introduction.....	28
Preparing the Way: Pioneer Efforts before Reaching Hong Kong.....	28
Joshua Marshman in India.....	29
William Dean in Siam .....	30

Jehu Shuck and Issachar Roberts in Macau .....	32
Hong Kong Baptist Story: Missionaries Acting Alone (1842-1860).....	33
The Shucks and Cantonese Churches.....	34
William Dean and Swatow Churches.....	36
Issachar Roberts in Stanley.....	37
Departure of Pioneer Missionaries .....	39
Hong Kong Baptist Story: Chinese Taking Part (1860-1900).....	43
A Tui and His House Church .....	43
Tang Si-deng: A Chinese Baptist Pastor from Swatow .....	46
The Dawning of a Self-governing Church .....	49
Conclusion .....	51
Chapter 3: Hong Kong Baptist Story (1900-1950): The Context in Which Lam Emerged As a Lay Leader.....	54
Introduction.....	54
The Birth of the Hong Kong Baptist Self-governing Church.....	54
Self-governing and Self-supporting.....	55
Pioneering Indigenous Movement.....	57
Fifty Years of Outreach .....	59
1900-1910.....	59
1910-1930.....	61
1930-1950.....	63
Church Growth.....	65
Emergence of Lay Leaders .....	67
Notable Lay Leaders.....	67
Wong Kwok-shuen (1880?-1974).....	68
Ho Hing-chuen (dates of birth and death not known).....	68
Wong Tong Chung-ling (1883-1952).....	69
Tam Hay-tin (1894-1980).....	70

Lam Chi-fung (1892-1971) .....	70
Lam's Involvement and Contribution.....	75
Education Ministry .....	75
Swatow Baptists.....	78
Hong Kong Baptist Association .....	81
Conclusion .....	82
Chapter 4: Lam's Role in Seeking Mission Support to Meet the Changing Needs of Hong Kong (1950-1970).....	85
Introduction.....	85
Changing Political Context.....	86
Increasing Needs Due to Population Surge .....	89
Attitude of Mission Agents towards the Change.....	91
Lam's Way of Responding to the Change.....	96
Initiating the Invitation of Missionaries .....	96
Direct Request for Missionaries .....	97
Through Missionaries in Hong Kong.....	97
Through the Hong Kong-Macau Mission .....	98
Inviting Help from American Baptists .....	100
Making Overseas Trips to Solicit Foreign Support.....	102
London Baptist World Congress in 1955 .....	102
Brazil Baptist World Congress in 1960.....	104
Miami Baptist World Congress in 1965.....	105
Building Friendship with Missionaries and Visitors .....	108
Conclusion .....	111
Chapter 5: A New Baptist Landscape - Contributions of Lam and Foreign Missions (1950-1970).....	113
Introduction.....	113
Increase of Missionary Resources .....	113

Missionary Support on All Fronts .....	119
Participation in Direct Evangelism.....	119
The Opening of New Churches and Chapels .....	120
Assistance in Church Ministries .....	123
Establishment of Baptist Institutions.....	125
Baptist College .....	126
Baptist Hospital .....	130
Baptist Theological Seminary .....	133
Baptist Press .....	134
Baptist Assembly.....	135
Other Support.....	136
Benevolence Ministries .....	136
Training the Locals.....	138
A Different Landscape.....	140
Tensions Created by Lam’s Initiating the Return of Missionaries.....	142
Indigenous vs. Foreign.....	143
Direct Evangelism vs. Indirect Evangelism .....	146
Displeasure with Lam’s Leadership .....	149
Conclusion .....	151
Chapter 6: Baptist Cooperation with the Hong Kong Government (1950-1970):
Lam’s Collaboration with Governor Grantham.....	153
Introduction.....	153
Long Tradition of Baptist Cooperation with the Government (1842-1950) .....	153
Baptist Cooperation with the Hong Kong Government (1950-1970).....	156
A New Political Situation.....	156
Social Problems Escalated as Population Increased.....	158
Government Seeking Help.....	161
Baptists Becoming a Favorable Partner in Education.....	163

Lam’s Collaboration with Government.....	166
Lam’s Experience in Dealing with Governments .....	166
Lam and Grantham’s Collaboration .....	169
Grantham and Lam’s Need for One Another .....	173
Lam and Grantham: Genuine Friends or Contractual Partners? .....	176
Lam and Subsequent Governors.....	181
Conclusion .....	185
Chapter 7: Hong Kong Situation when Lam was the Leader: Church State
Separation From Non-Issue to Becoming a Concern .....	187
Introduction.....	187
Baptist Understanding of Church and State Relationship .....	188
Southern Baptists’ Perplexity in the 1960s: Colleges in the U.S. Accepting Federal Aid.....	191
Baptist Schools Accepting Government Subsidies: Examples from India and Nigeria.....	193
Hong Kong Situation when Lam was the Leader: From Non-Issue to Becoming a Concern.....	195
Stance of the Hong Kong-Macau Mission in 1960s: No Government Subsidy but Definition Indeterminate.....	197
Stance of Hong Kong Baptists under Lam’s Leadership: the Pragmatic Approach Prevailed .....	204
Two Meetings .....	205
Seven Articles .....	209
Lam’s Modus operandi .....	213
Conclusion .....	221
Chapter 8: Conclusion.....
The Beginning of Hong Kong Baptists .....	223
Lam’s Contribution to Hong Kong Baptists between 1950 and 1970 .....	224
How Was Lam Able to Lead Baptist Growth between 1950 and 1970? .....	225

A Different Baptist Life Shaped by Lam.....	228
Lam: A Remarkable Baptist Leader .....	229
Summary .....	231
Appendix: Glossary of Names of People in Chinese.....	235
Bibliography.....	241